There is an old story about a workman on some scaffolding high above a church, who looked down and saw a woman praying before a statue of Our Lady. When he realized that she had not noticed him, he decided to have some fun! He boomed, "I am the Lord!" The woman did not respond. "I am the Lord!" he said again. Still no response. Finally, he gave it another really good go: "I am the Lord!" At this point the woman looked around, quite irritated, and said, "would you please be quiet. I'm trying to talk to your mother!"
